

Graduate Profile in Ba Statistics

No	Graduate Profile	Descriptions
1.	Eduator	Lecturers, instructors, and teachers
2.	Researchers	Researchers in the fields of industry, economics and business, social and political science, health and the environment, and computing
3.	Consultans	Consultant in the field of statistics or statistical computing in the government, industry, banking, financial institutions, health and environmental sectors, as well as across sectors
4.	Data Analyst	Expert in designing, collecting, presenting, analyzing data, and drawing conclusions as a basis for decision-making in government and corporate sectors, including industry, agriculture, services, trade, and extractive industries, as well as across sectors.
5.	Data Scientist	Someone who is skilled in analyzing big data, developing models/methods, identifying data patterns, and creating visual presentations to help make informed and strategic decisions in the fields of industry, economics and business, social and political science, health and the environment, and other fields.
6.	Actuary	Expert in insurance or risk management in both financial and non-financial sectors
7.	Assistant Manager	Managerial experts in the fields of industry, economics and business, social and political science, health and the environment, and other fields
8.	Administrative Staff	Administrative staff in the fields of industry, economics and business, social and political affairs, health and the environment, and other fields
9.	Entrepreneur	Entrepreneurs in the fields of industry, economics and business, health, and the environment.